GERGORY RABESS
CANDIDATE FOR SALYBIA CONSTITUENCY

Born in Atkinson on May 4, 1953, Greg received his early education at the Atkinson and Calibishie Primary Schools, and later at the SMA and Sixth Form College. From 1972 to 1976, he was a teacher at the Portsmouth Secondary School.

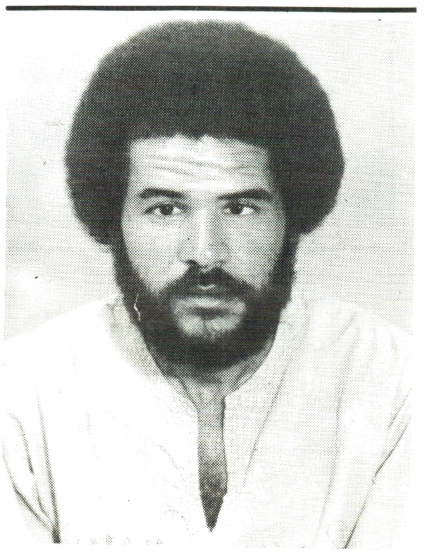

Greg has always been active in his community and other parts of Dominica especially in culture, agriculture, music, youth groups, community development and politics. For example, he has been an active musician, a song writer and composer and has done recordings since 1973. A dynamic poet and writer, Gregory now serves on the National Youth Council's Cultural Committee.

Whatever benefits his community and country, you name it and Gregory plays a part. He is secretary of the Northern District Agricultural Processing Cooperative (NDAP) Secretary of the National Youth Council, and in his community he is involved with youth in Bataca, Carib Reserve and he leads the Waraka Youth Movement which is involved in cooperative agriculture and timber extraction.

As a member of the Atkinson Village Council, Greg has been very active in hurricane relief operations in his community. As a tireless campaigner for the rights of our ancestors the Caribs, Gregory's decision to represent his people in parliament under the DLM-Alliance Party, is a natural and wise one. «All the other parties have failed to recognise the worth of our Carib ancestors — they are even hostile to our feelings» says Greg.

Gregory's outspokenness, dynamism, discipline, sincerity of purpose, dedication, capability and leadership qualities makes him a dynamic example to our aspiring people. That is why he is the man for Atkinson, and the Carib Reserve. Gregory's victory is a victory for the people and for our roots.

RICHARD CHARLES
CANDIDATE FOR THE MARIGOT CONSTITUENCY

Richie, as he is popularly known, was born in Marigot on January 17, 1955 and after early schooling at Marigot, attended the Saint Mary's Academy, where he graduated in 1974. From the days of his involvement in the struggle of the students at the SMA, Richard began to develop a deep committment to fight against all kinds of exploitation. Soon he became involved with the Movement for a New Dominica, and in 1978, he helped to form the Peoples' Action Movement Farmers' Cooperative, and became its first President. As well, Richie was elected President of the National Federation of Agricultural Cooperatives for two consecutive years.

He has been, among other things, an Executive member of the League of Socialist Workers and the Peoples' Democratic Party, a Committee member of the Christian Council Development Fund of Dominica ; and in Marigot, he was elected Vice Chairman of the Village Council in 1977. After helping the Alliance Party Leader, Atherton Martin to reorganise the Dominica Farmers' Union, Richie became its Assistant Secretary in 1978, and acted as General Secretary for three months in 1979. As a National Executive member of the DLM-Alliance, Richie towers over the other candidates in the Marigot Constituency, in that, his dedication and committment to bettering the life of the poor people in this country is proven by his record. Richie is fearless and selfless and is both physically and mentally prepared to tackle the worrisome problems affecting this country with enthusiasm.

RICHIE IS THE RIGHT ONE FOR MARIGOT.
HE TOWERS ABOVE THE REST. VOTE RICHARD CHARLES.
