Lord Munster Parliamentary Undersecretary of State For the Colonies in Dominica

LORD MUNSTER Parliamentary Undersecretary of State for the Colonies who has special responsibilities in the Colonial Office for West Indian and Caribbean matters now on another short trip to the West Indies scheduled to take him to certain parts of the British West Indies not included during a previous visit, arrived in Dominica on Tuesday, the 20th instant.

His Lordship's stay here lasted two days and he had enough time to meet members of the Executive and Legislative Council. He left on Thursday morning by the "Goose."

His Lordship was the guest of His Honour the Administrator and Mrs. Lindo during his very short stay.
